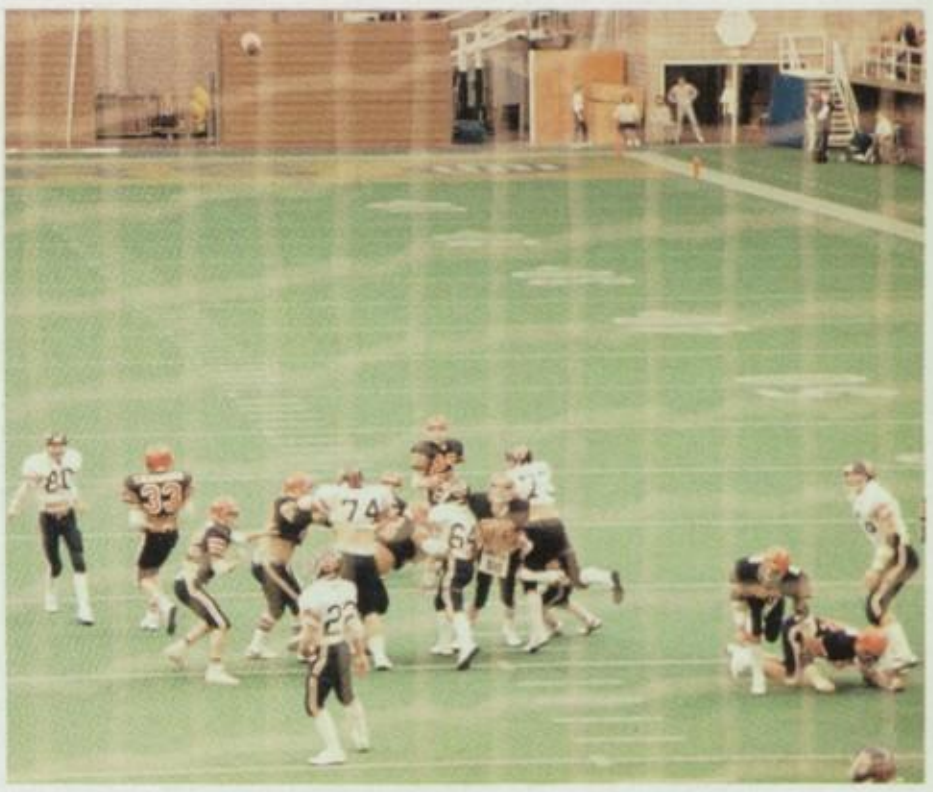
TREASURE THE MEMORIES



The 1983-84 school year was filled with spirit. Greattinger boasted fine athletic teams and a faithful following of fans. Along with the normal load of school work, students also indulged in music, drama, band, and speech; just to name a few. It was a great year, we hope you enjoy the pages ahead. Remember, "Treasure the Memories!"

HOMECOMING "84"

A surprise look as king Kevin Jensen crowns queen Carol Hoffman.

Emcees Brad Duhn and Tammy Egeland run the coronation ceremonies.

The royal Court L to R: emcees Tammy Egeland and Brad Duhn, freshmen Karyn Norris and Doug Girres, Sophomores Angie Hanson and David Rients, Juniors Lynn Bisenius and Chris Girres, Crownbearer Josh Jacobson, Queen Carol Hoffman and King Kevin Jensen, Crownbearer Jennifer Fox, Seniors Deb Moran and Joel Jacobson, Brenda Alesch and Dean Eaton, Jessica Eldridge and Carl Koekenhoff, Ann Nissen and Dan Millea.

Homecoming 1983 was a big week in Graettinger High. Monday through friday students wore outfits that were assigned for each day. Monday was dress up day; Tuesday—opposite sex day; Wednesday—punk day; Thursday—toga, hat, shades, and button day; Friday—orange and black day. The class which displayed the most spirit all week won candy bars, which was won by the seniors.

Other activities going on included the usual float building. The sophomore class took the honors with the theme of "Same song, 5th verse." Thursday night the FHA had a BBQ. Afterwards a pep rally was put on by the cheerleaders. Many games and contests were held. As you can see, one of the contests was a pyramid building contest. The freshmen won with the fastest time. Coronation was held at 8:00. On Friday there was a parade and pep rally. Friday night the Pirates beat South Clay 63-0. Afterwards, a dance was held in the gym to cap off a fine week.

CONFERENCE CHAMPS

After opening the year ranked #8 in the Des moines Register, the "83" Pirates slashed through the rugged Cornbelt Conference unbeaten at 8-0. Graettinger boasted a high powered offensive machine and a crunching defense—which would later gain the label of "Domesday." Graettinger averaged 39 points to their opponents 6.3 in the regular season. The pirate offense totaled almost 400 yards per game, while the defense held opponents to 135 yards per game.

Decisive wins over Ruthven (49-7), South Clay (63-0), and highly touted Everly in the season final (50-13), bolted the black and orange to its first playoff berth since 1976.

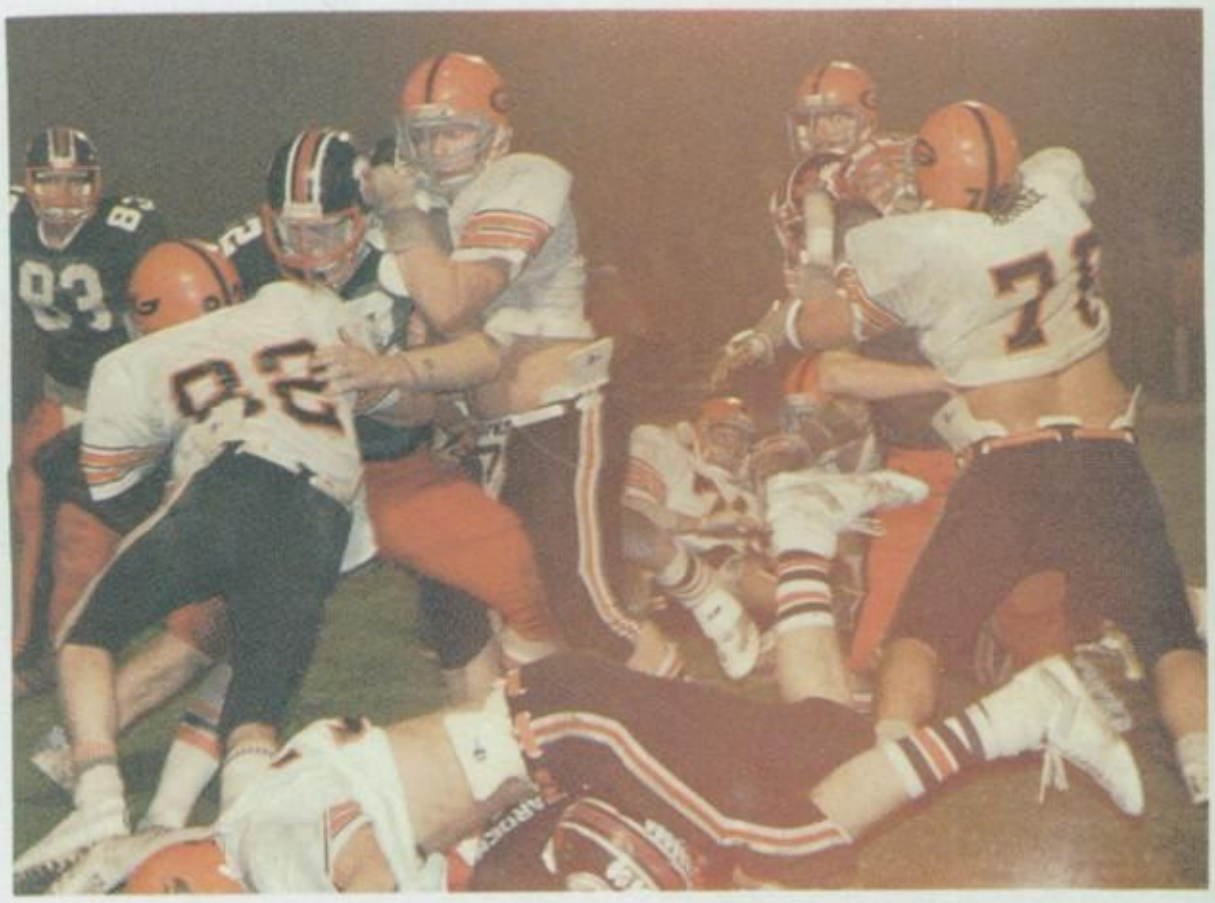
The Pirates were led by these five seniors: Kneeling-Dean Eaton, Dan Millea; Standing-Joel Jacobson, Carl Koekenhoff, Kevin Jensen. Kevin, Carl, and Dan all received 1st team all-conference on offense and defense. Kevin was elected 1st team all state defensive back and Carl was elected 2nd team all state defensive end. Dean was honorable mention both ways and Joel was 2nd team all conference offense. Other Pirates receiving honors were: Soctt Beschorner-1st team both ways (special mention all state); Don McCombs-2nd team both ways; Jack Akridge-1st offense, 2nd defense; Travis Henricksen-Honorable mention both ways; Dave Neilsen-2nd team defense; Jon Petersen-2nd team both ways; Dan also received special mention all state.

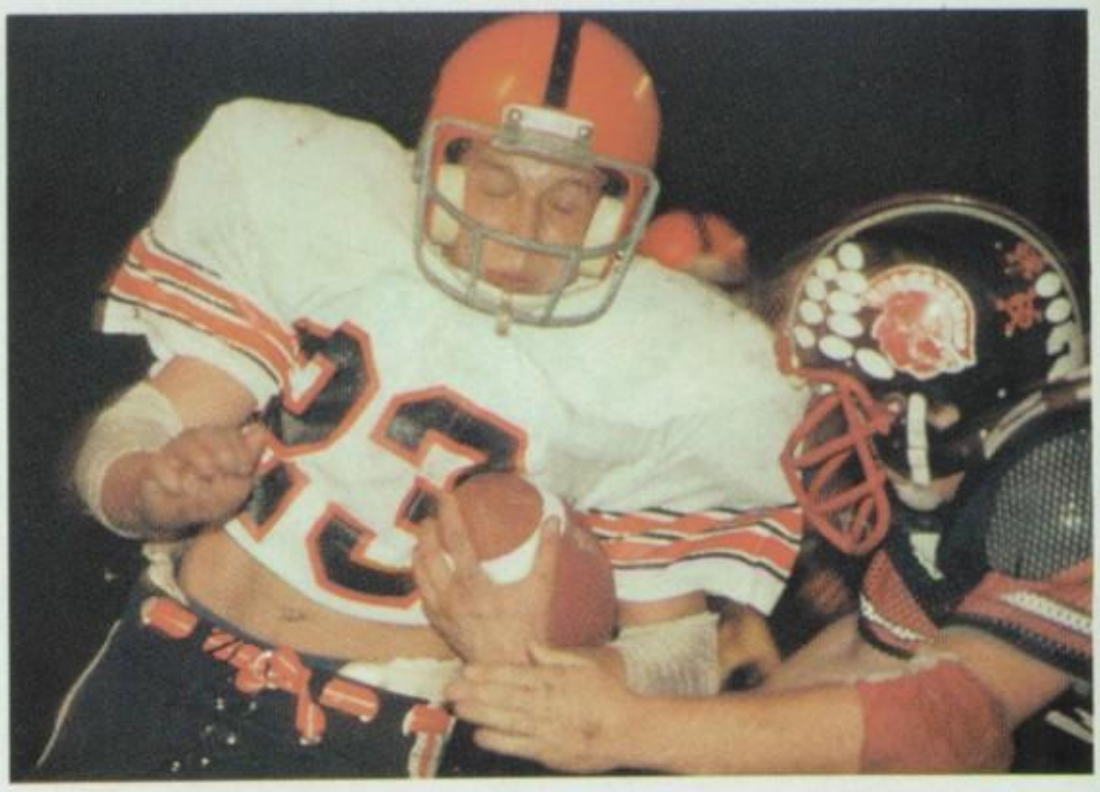
The five seniors will be missed however they will be replaced by a strong group of underclassmen.

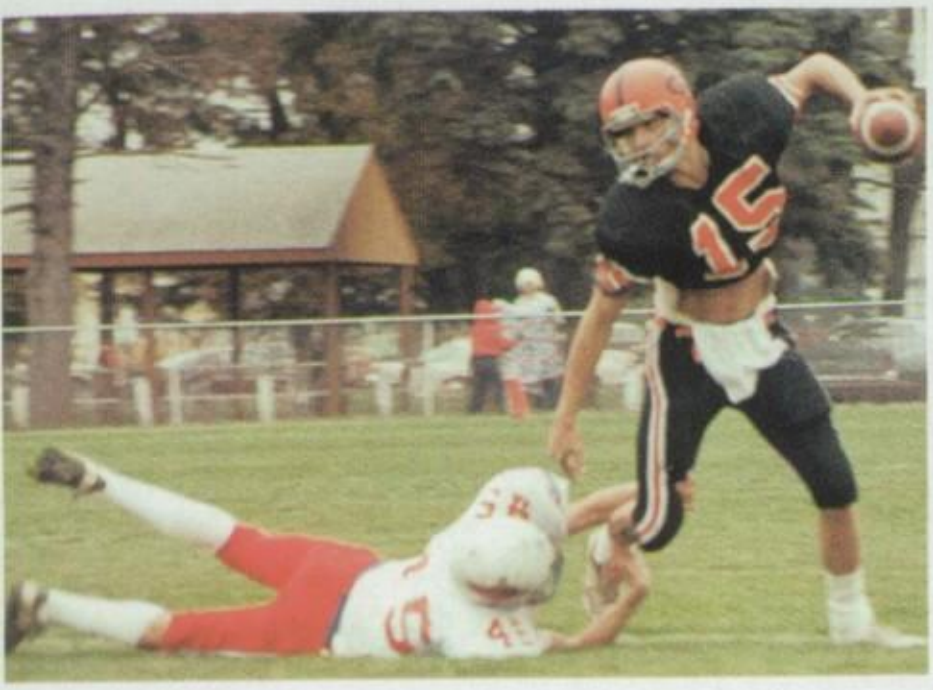
The Pirates had gone undefeated three times since the 1976 season but failed to make the playoffs each time due to the point system used to determine qualifyers. Once again the Pirates were undefeated in 1983 and not until the end of the last game's victory did the Pirates realize they had finally made it to state. Some said the only reason the Pirates were undefeated was because of an "easy schedule." Some said Graettinger would never make it past the first round. Funny how some can be so wrong. Check it out! (Turn the page)

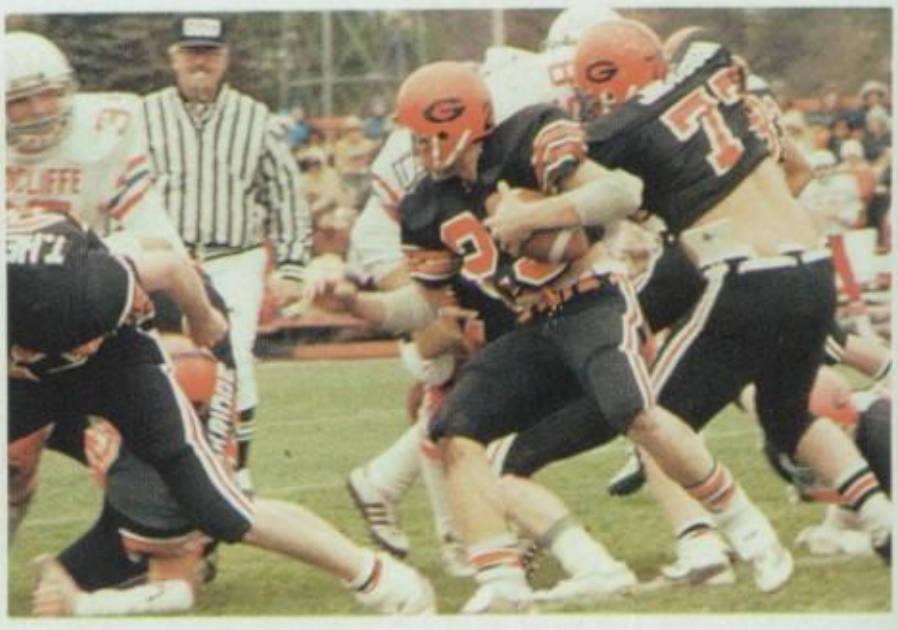
"DOMEWARD

The Pirates faced huge odds throughout the playoffs, playing the role of the underdog in every game. Their first foe was Allison Bristow (12-0) which was ranked #4. The second foe was Radcliffe (23-6) which was ranked #3. DEE-fense was the story in the playoffs as the Pirates "Domesday," squad of eleven overpowered their foes offenses. Allison Bristow was held to just 49 total yards and negative 2 yards rushing! Radcliffe managed to bend the locals defense for 136 yards, but their only score came against the GHS J.V. unit in the late going.









BOUND"

The title game in the UNI dome was quite an accomplishment for the pirates. Once again they were the underdog, facing # 1 Sutherland. Graettinger took a lead early in the second period as Scott Beschorner bulled over from the two yard line. Sutherland came back and took the halftime lead 7-6 by capitalizing on a bad snap on a punt. In the third period Don McCombs blocked a Tiger punt which was returned by Travis Henricksen to the one yard line. From there Kevin Jensen snuck in for a 12-7 lead Sutherland then scored on a punt return and went ahead 13-12. This was the way the game ended. Time ran out on the Pirates on Sutherland's one foot line, amidst a controversial call. Still a great end to a great season.

SPIKE CITY

The GHS Varsity Volleyball Team started the season with a fresh team as six starters were lost to graduation. By the end of the season, the girls had gained experience and their game had improved. The overall season ended 7-11 and in the Cornbelt Conference the team finished 2-4. The girls were coached by Chyrl Bergvig.

This years letter winners included Seniors: Julie Lien, Peggy Naig, Michelle Schacherer, and Cathy Sikora; Juniors: Teri Studer and Shelly Shryock; Sophomores: Nicole Haegele and Angie Hansen; Freshmen: Dallas Petersen and Julie Weber. Peggy Naig was selected for All-Conference first team and Shelly Shryock received second team honors.

The Graettinger Pirates won the eastern division of the Corn Belt conference. In addition to that, they also won the sectional championship, before bowing out to Buffalo Center-Rake in the District match.

The pirates posted the best record since 1977-78, at 18-3. The eastern division title was won with a strong 14-0 record. The Pirates were led by three year starter and MVP, Kevin Jensen. Kevin was the leading scorer, playing on the wing. Inside was held down by senior Carl Koekenhoff, who led in rebounding and was a first team conference selection. Seniors Dean Eaton and Dan Millea contributed greatly, holding down the point and wing positions. Junior Scott Beschorner and sophomore Travis Henrickson rounded out the line up. Both strong prospects that will return to be the nucleus of a solid team next year.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

Coach Hough's girls team was a young one this year, with only one senior forward and one senior guard. The girls did pretty good considering the youth and a difficult eastern division of the Corn Belt Conference.

The season record finished at a respectiable 12-8 along with a third place finish in the conference and sectional runner up honors. Dawn Simington led the team in scoring for the season, totaling 449 pts. Susan Hoffman led the team in rebounds with 107 and Michelle Naig led the team in steals with 57.

Offensively the Pirates averaged 61.2 pts. a game. Defensively the Pirates held opponents to 58.8 per game. Graduation will claim experienced forward Barb Bates and guard/forward Michelle Schacherer. Best of luck next year girls!

WRESTLERS IN ACTION

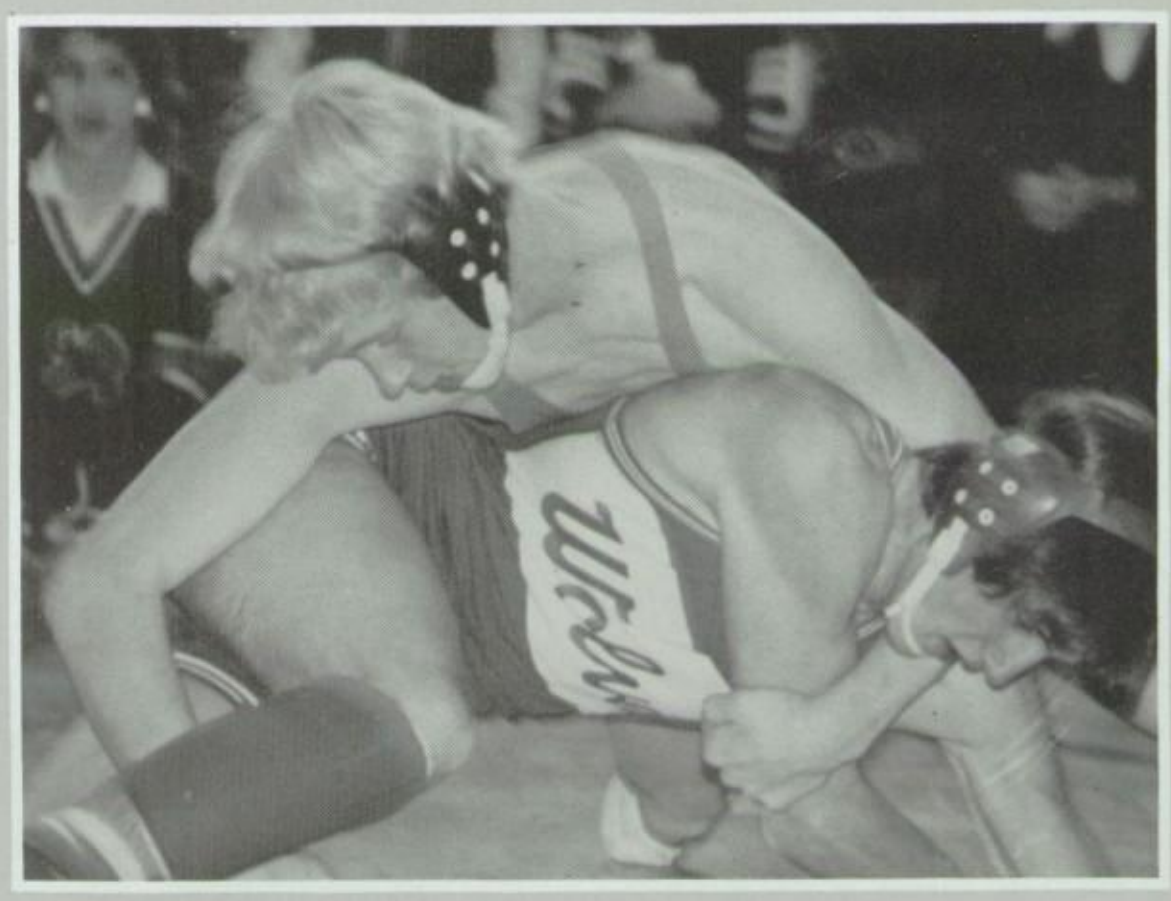
The Pirate wrestlers wrestled top notch competition all season long and performed quite well considering the youth. The team consisted mainly of sophomores and freshman, with only two seniors on the squad. According to coach Thiele "Hard work and dedication will make great wrestlers out of all these fine young men in the future."



Rich Torreson gains control over a HLP wrestler.

The wrestling squad has two awards given to the most improved wrestler and the most valuable wrestler each year. This year the recipients are Andy Hampson (M.I.) and Shane Alesch (M.V.P.) Shane is a freshman and Andy is a sophomore. Freshman Jeff Naig tied Shane for MVP honors.

The pirates wrestled in many difficult invitationals this year. Here is how they placed:
Milford - 7th
Terril - 5th
Graettinger - 4th
Harris/Lake Park - 6th
Laurens - Marathon - 6th

Jeff Naig and Shane Alesch led the team in most Pins. Alesch also had the most take downs.

ON THE RIGHT TRACK

This year the boys track team received a new look with new head coach Rod Hough. Mr. Hough had the opportunity to work with a fine group of athletes and thus produced one of the best track teams Graettinger has fielded in some time.

Once again speedster Dave Neilson led the team all season and also qualified for state in the 100 meter dash for the second straight year. This year the 4 x 100 relay team qualified for state. The relay team consists of Scott Beschorner, Kevin Jensen, Jon Petersen, and Dave Neilson.

Only three seniors were lost to graduation and coach Hough feels next year's team will be strong if he can get a few more good people out. Best of luck!

The boys golf team this year saw three new faces, Sophomore Kipp James, and Freshmen Doug Striet and Derek Nelson. Derek, Doug, and Kipp held down the number 3, 4, and 5 positions on the team. All were new to the sport of golf and progressed far in their first year.

Chad Henrickson (sophomore) and Senior Rich Torreson held down the one and two positions respectively. Chad was medalist in the sectional meet with a fine round of 79 at Rolfe. Rich missed district qualifying by a single shot.

Although the team was young, inexperienced, and small, they fought the whether and competition to finish at a respectable 4-4.

The girls golf team finished the season at a respectable 4-3 record. The team was well balanced, with all six girls scores being used at least twice throughout the season. Seniors lost to graduation were Jackie Voigt and Michelle Schacherer. Returning for next years team are: Junior Dawn Schacherer, and Sophomores Angie Hansen, Nicole Haegele, and Mary McCombs.

THE SEASON:

This year's softball team finished 7-5 overall and 7-3 in conference play under the leadership of new head coach Rod Hough. The girls set a few conference records with an astounding 26-25 win over South Clay. The team was held down by a solid mucleus of all-conference seniors. Next year's team returns 10 underclassmen and hopefully another solid season.

THE SEASON:

Coach Larry Bollman came over from Ruthven and directed the Pirates to an impressive Cornbelt Conference Championship and an 11-6 overall record. The Pirates were led by the hitting of Scott Beschorner (.396) and the pitching of Chris Westfall.

The Pirates lost only 3 to graduation so the future looks promising.

WE GOT THE BEAT

The G.H.S. Cheerleaders definately had the beat this year as they had many exciting and fun plans. The year was filled with lots of skits, dance routines, and pep rallies.

To start off their season the Football Cheerleaders attended the NCA Cheerleading Camp at Okoboji from June 20-25. They ended the spectacular Football season by having the chance to take an exciting trip down to the U.N.I. Dome to cheer on the Graettinger Pirates! The Winter Sports Cheerleaders had a very busy season as they cheered for both wrestling and basketball. They kept the spirit going and had lots of fun!

Varsity Basketball and Wrestling Cheerleaders: Cathy Sikora, Janice Hurley, Roxanne Felkey, Julie Weber, and Lisa Girres.

Jr. High Football Cheerleaders: Bottom, L to R: Penny Shryock, Jodie Jackson, Krista Van Laar, Top, L to R: Melanie Sievers, Jodie Jacobson, Gina Lowman.

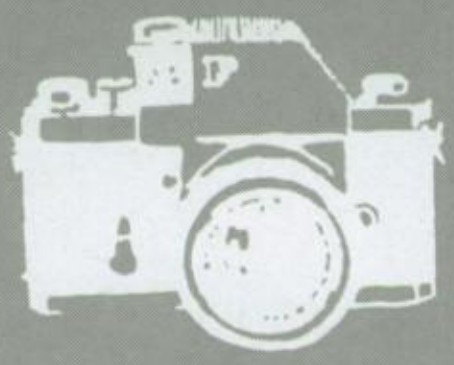
Special thanks to photographer Andy Scattebo, whose time and effort made these pictures in 1983-84 available.



The theme to this year's annual was, "Pirates Treasure Chest." The cover was designed by the staff along with the theme during the first meeting. We also decided to use the cover theme on all the division pages.

From baseball to graduation, the staff worked many long and "odd" hours. We hope you enjoy the memories brought in this, the 1984, Pirate annual.

PIRATE PRESS CREW

The Pirate Press crew this year was small but efficient. The editor was Dan Millea with co-editor Jackie Voigt. They did a fine job of handing out stories and making sure the writers had their beats covered.

This year the stories were handled somewhat different than in the past. Beats were assigned to two people in Sports, Music, Drama, Speech and other special stories. That way, nobody was to be "over" or "under" worked. It worked out very well as a result. Everyone enjoyed informing their eager public.

FHA IS:

"COOKIN"!

FHA certainly was cooking at the annual Soup Supper Thursday night during Homecoming Week. The girls served soup and chili to the community before coronation. The money made went towards a trip to Kansas City. At the left Tina Tindall serves up a bowl of soup, at right Julie Nissen watches for potential customers.

"FASHION!"

The members were in style as they modeled clothes furnished by the Dahl House in Spencer. Some of the girls' mothers got into the act as they also modeled. During intermission the ILCC Swing Choir performed. The night was a success and fun for everyone. At right Brenda Alesch models a fur coat and left is Deb Moran.

"FUN!"

This year's FHA members were involved in numerous activities. The year was very successful as the girls earned enough money to charter a bus to Kansas City.

During the year, FHA held bakesales, ice cream social, a car wash, Christmas party, Halloween party for kids K-6, decorated lockers for Valentines Day and St. Pat's Day. The girls also took part in FHA week by wearing roses to school.

The 1983-84 G.H.S. Student Council started their year off right with the election of officers. This year's President was Dan Milllea. Kevin Jensen took the office of Vice-President while Jackie Voigt was secretary and Lynn Bisenius, treasurer.

The first activity the Student Council started the year off with was to plan the Homecoming activities. Judging the Elementary Parade entries and decorating the gym for coronation were just part of the fun. There was also the annual Homecoming Dance. The Student Council also took care of the Pop machines and made sure they were full and working. There was the annual Christmas movie which was titled "The Quiet Man" and featured John Wayne. The Student Council members also took care of the Cancer Drive which is annually done by the community.

SPEECH

The other speech ensembles were Readers Theatre. Members included Jackie Voigt, Lynn Bisenius, Kurt Herke, and Janice Hurley. Their selection was "Meet Mr. Shakespeare." Duet acting was a humorous selection of "Hansel and Gretel" done by Lynn Bisenius and Dave Shurter. Dave also did Individual Speech with "Tell Tale Hearts" and Janice Hurley went to Individual Speech with "Angel Unaware." All ensembles recieved II ratings except Choral Reading which recieved a I and a II at State.

The vocal group this year was small in numbers. It contained 30 members (only two of which were male). In spite of the size, they were very good. Under the direction of Miss Peggy Legreid, the chorus performed at the Christmas concert, spring concert, swing show and graduation. Some of the kids also participated individually in small group contests.

Band this year was a new experience for most. The high school was to small to play so the 8th grade was promoted to high school band. Concerts held this year were the annual Christmas concert, along with the spring concert and swing show. The jazz band traveled to Terril on tour and were received very well.

The big event of the year was when our football team traveled to the UNI dome for the state football tournament playoff. The band traveled along to support and encourage the team to a great game. The band also played at basketball half times and between games. They worked hard and had a good time under the direction of Mr. Klein.

FRANKENSTEIN:

THE MONSTER PLAY

On October 29, 1983, with the spirit of Halloween in the air, the GHS Drama Department under the direction of LaDona Jergenson performed the drama Frankenstein: The Monster Play by Christopher O'Neal based on the novel by Mary Shelley.

Frankenstein is a play about a huge and ugly creature called "The Monster." The Monster came to be through a mistake by Dr. Frankenstein and his assistant, Igor. The Monster tries to make friends but because of his size and appearance, people are afraid of him. He kills several of the characters during the play unintentionally before he is destroyed in the final scene by a fire started by the angry villagers. As the curtain falls, The Monster calls out one last time, "Fren-Fren-Fren".

The cast had a fun time performing the play even though its theme was on the serious side.

Below Left to Right: Willa, Victor, Elizabeth, Justine, Mrs. Frankenstein, and Henry discuss Elizabeth and Victor's engagement party that Victor was too busy in his laboratory to attend.

Characters:

Victor prepares the "blood of life" to be given to his experiment.

SMALL GROUP CONTEST

Vocal trio Julie Weber, Lynn Bisenius, and Cathy Sikora received a II rating.

Vocal sextet Tina Tindall, Anastasia Petersen, Jody Hansen, and (top row) Lisa Tindall, Amy Weber and Karyn Norris received a III rating.

These band members competed in small group contests: Shannon Baas, Karyn Norris (Flute II), Anastasia Petersen (Flute II), Kelly Jensen; Top: Jackie Voigt (Sax Alto I), Julie Lien (tenor Sax II), Steve Egeland, and Keith Hoose (Sax II).

The small group contestants in band and vocal were young and gained much valuable experience. The students had fun and are looking forward to returning again next year to do even better. Good luck!

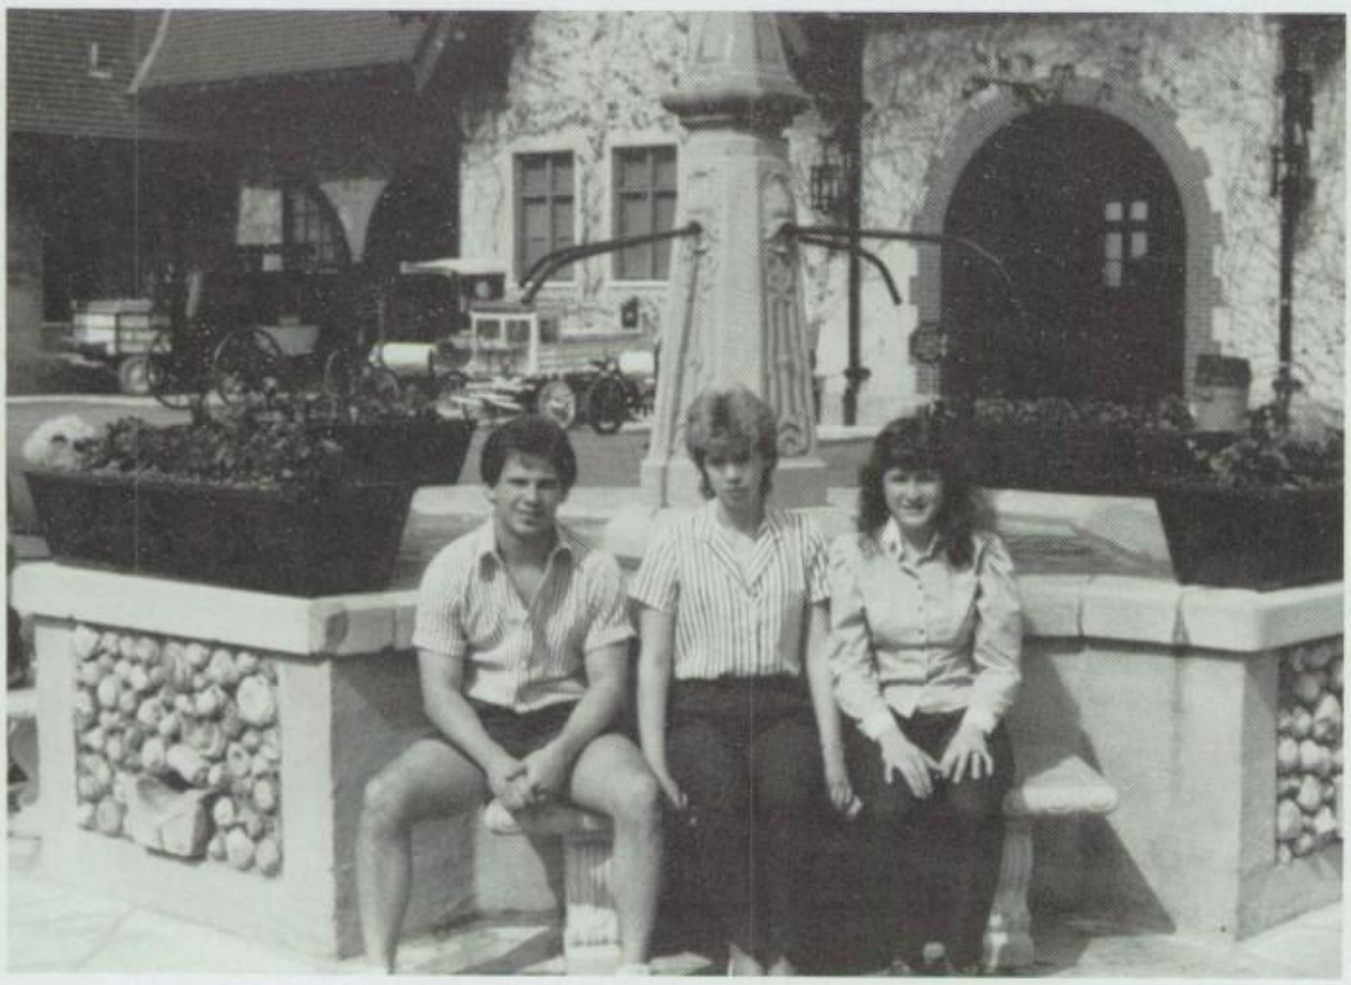
The vocal triple trio received a III rating. Members were (bottom): Tina Tindall, Lisa Tindall, Karyn Norris. Middle: Shelly Shryock, Anastasia Petersen, Julie Weber. Top: Amy Weber, Cathy Sikora, and Julie Nissen.

Active Members Jon Petersen, Jackie Voigt, Julie Lien, and New Inductee Janice Hurley.

The National Honor Society this year consisted of Seniors Julie Lien and Jackie Voigt and Junior Jon Petersen. The group sponsored a Veterans Day poster contest for K-4 in November. Funds were raised for their annual trip by working many evenings in the concession stand during the volleyball, basketball and wrestling seasons.

The NHS went to St. Louis, MIssoui April 26-29. They visited Anheuser-Busch, The Magic House, Grants Farm, the Gateway Arch and toured the Mississippi on a riverboat ride. The Broadway musical "42nd Street" was seen at The Fabulous Fox Theater and dinner one evening was taken in at the well known St. Louis restaurant Stan Musical & Biggies.

Induction into NHS for Janice Hurley was held April 9 at the Hillcrest Supper Club by the Active Members. The event was attended by parents and friends.



The NHS trip to St. Louis included visiting Grants farm. Here Jon, Jackie, and Julie take a breather near the stables. Sponsor Chyrl Bergvig also went on the trip.

NHS

New Officers are: President: Alan Schmitt, Vice President: Brian Graettinger, Secretary: Michelle Boucher, Treasurer: Jerry Joyce, Reporter: Derek Nelson, Sentinel: David Hoffman, Asst. Reporter: Laura Vreeland, Asst. Treasurer: Doug Streit.

The Graettinger FFA members traveled near and far during the 1983-84 school year. In the fall, they attended the Palo Alto County Fair, The Clay County Fair, and they went to Ames for livestock judging.

They were very excited in the spring as they appeared at the State Convention in Des Moines on April 27-28. They left Graettinger on a Friday night. All day Saturday, they eagerly listened to guest speakers at the Convention. After the Convention, they toured the Air National Guard.

"Sis Boom Bah" was about a loosing football team who through team work and confidence learned to become a winning team.

There were about 60 members consisting of people from grades 5-8. The settings of the play were the school and the football field, where Jodie Jackson had a solo along with Tom Felkey. The cast went out for pizza after the play and it was a "riot."

Directors LaDonna Jergenson and Peggy Legreid (Musical director), would like to thank Mrs. Forey, Miss Bergvig, Mr. Nissen, Mr. Gilbaugh, Mr. Klein, and all parents of cast members for their help and understanding.

GIRLS VOLLEYBALL

The girls jr. high volleyball team attracted a wide number of girls this year. Under the direction of coach Bergvig, the team competed quite successfully. Members of the 1983-84 team were:

GIRLS TRACK

Coach Bergvig also had charge of the girls track program for the jr. high. The girls track team along with the other spring sports, endured a cold and windy spring. The girls endured however and had a fine season. Members of the 1983-84 track team were:

JR HIGH BOYS SPORTS

The jr. high boys football team, coached by Wayne Van Veldhuizen, finished the year at 1-4. Although the record was a little on the "loss" side, the boys had fun. Many seventh graders will be returning for next year's squad.

Jr. high football eam, front row L to R: Scott Park, Schawn Pattison, Darren Henrickson, David Besaw, Kevin Kulow, Chad Naig, David Harris, Tom Hughes, Dan Zitterich, Troy Louwagie. ARTS AND SCIENCE FAIR

The annual arts and science fair was held May 9th. Kindergarten through 12 participated in displaying art and science projects. On this page we caught a few of the K - 8th grade with their projects.

Only the middle school participated in the science projects. Six of the students took their projects to the conference show at Clay Central. They were: Kevin Duus, Laura Hoffman, Chelsea James, Katie Millea, David Rauhauser, and Shelaine Jacobsen. The project presented by Kevin Duus took 2nd place.

Art was a big part of the science fair with the K - 12 participating. The students displayed artwork such as pottery, ceramics, paintings, and much more. Here are two young gentlemen examining a vase.

COOKS

BUS DRIVERS

The bus drivers this year included Gary Harris, Cliff Harris, Don Harris, Dennis Harris, and Bill Girres.

New head cook Mertle Schaffer took over the hot lunch program at Graettinger this year. Mertle and staff worked hard and prepared some new dishes along with chef's salads on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

The only bad points about the bus drivers and custodians is that their pictures didn't turn out (sorry). The bus drivers did a fine job through rain and snow, getting kids to school and back.

While the bus drivers took care of the transportation and buses, the custodians Ken and Norm took care of the school, which included many extra activities to keep them very busy. Special thanks to all and keep up the good work.

CUSTODIANS

Custodians at GHS were Norm Nissen, Kenny Gilbaugh, and Carol Gilbaugh. "Hats off" to the cooks, bus drivers, and custodians for a job well done!

Teachers Aide-Diane Sidles, 4th grade.

CLOSING

"FAITHFULLY"

PROM '84

The 1984 Prom was held on April 7 at 7:00 p.m. The theme for Prom was "Faithfully" by the popular group Journey. The banquet was held in the school cafeteria and was prepared by the cooks and the Junior's mothers. The banquet consisted of: ham, turkey, baked potatoes, green beans, salads, and milk or coffee. After the banquet prophecies were read by Juniors. A dance followed in the gym to the music of the "Pedestrians". The gym and cafeteria had been decorated by the Juniors with white, lavender, and purple streamers. At midnight many students went to the American Legion for Vegas night and to watch movies, which was sponsored by the parents. Throughout the night many prizes were given to the students and their dates. Later on in the night there was an auction for the prizes left over using the money won from Vegas night. Afterwards a breakfast was served by the Senior's mothers.

The band for the 1984 Prom was the "Pedestrians". The band was from Minneapolis, MN and played hard rock 'n roll songs such as: "Hurt So Good;" from John Cougar and other popular songs. "A footloose time was had by all!!" They started at 9:00 p.m. and stayed until midnight.

Shelly Shryock, Teri Studer, Lynn Bisenius, Scott Beschorner, and Jon Petersen read prophecies about the Junior class, Senior class, and teachers.

Class Motto: "If my mind can conceive it, and my heart can believe it, I know I can achieve it."

Class Flower: Pink Rose and White Rose.

Class Colors: Burgundy and White.

Class Officers: Carl Koekenhoff, President, Bradley Duhn, Vice President, Carol Hoffman, Secretary, Ann Nissen, Treasurer

The commencement services for the "class of 84" were held at the high school at 2:00, Sunday, May 20th. The opening prayer was given by Kevin Jensen and commencement addresses were given by Janna Weis and Dan Millea. Musical selections were sung by the high school chorus (You Must Fly) and the senior girls (How do we Say Goodbye). School board member Dale Hoffman presented the Diplomas and Ann Nissen said the closing prayer.

We wish this class all the luck in the world and hope your days at "G'town" high are well remembered.
